FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK.....

Dear College Community,

August has indeed been a month of significant accomplishments, with the focal point being the insightful visit of the NAAC Peer Team on the 17th and 18th. This evaluation was not just a measure of academic standards but a reflection of the dedication and hard work put in by the entire college community.

Our Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) played a pivotal role in orchestrating this comprehensive evaluation process. The meticulous planning and execution demonstrated by the IQAC team, in collaboration with our dedicated staff, ensured a smooth and effective evaluation.

I extend my sincere appreciation to our faculty for their unwavering commitment to maintaining high academic standards. Your efforts have been instrumental in shaping the academic environment that sets us apart.

Special recognition is also due to our students, whose active participation in the entire evaluation process showcased their commitment to the continuous improvement of our institution. Your enthusiasm and engagement underscore our collective pursuit of excellence.

Telugumatrubashadinosthavam, marked by vibrant student involvement, exemplified the cultural diversity that defines our college. Additionally, the Job mela organized by the Government of Andhra Pradesh provided a valuable platform for our students to explore diverse career opportunities.

As we reflect on these achievements, I want to express my gratitude to each member of our college family. Your collective efforts have positioned us for ongoing success, and I am confident that with this collaborative spirit, we will continue to achieve new milestones.

Thank you for your dedication and hard work.

Best Regards,

Dr. B. Sujatha
M.Sc., Ph.D

Principal, IQAC Present

In a spectacle that blended tradition and honor, our college rolled out the red carpet for the NAAC Peer Team, headed by esteemed members Prof. Ashutosh Ghosh (Chairperson), Prof. Chandra Gupta (Member Coordinator), and Prof. Pushpa Ranade (Member). The NCC Naval Unit's immaculate guard of honor set the stage for an eventful day within the hallowed halls of the Principal's chamber.

Amidst the grandeur, the NAAC Peer Team's ceremonial entry into the college was enriched by the sacred rituals of Pournakumbham and Mathroshavam, meticulously performed by our pujaris. This seamless fusion of age-old customs and military precision not only symbolized respect but also imparted a unique and indelible mark to the team's arrival.

The formal proceedings commenced with our Principal taking center stage, providing a sweeping panorama of the institution's vision, mission, and overarching goals. Following this, the IQAC Coordinator offered a detailed exposition on the proactive measures undertaken by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell, shedding light on initiatives designed to elevate both academic and administrative processes.

The spotlight gracefully pivoted to individual departments, where respective Incharges unveiled captivating presentations detailing achievements and best practices.

and Department Incharges tations

These insightful showcases not only spotlighted academic accomplishments but also illuminated the innovative methodologies embraced by each department. The Departmental Incharges passionately highlighted research contributions, student accolades, and the incorporation of cutting-edge teaching practices.

The ensuing interactive sessions allowed the NAAC Peer Team to actively participate in discussions, seeking clarification and offering valuable insights that enriched the exchange of ideas. These dynamic conversations fostered a deeper appreciation for the unique strengths and contributions of each department.

Beyond the confines of the Principal's chamber, the NAAC Peer Team embarked on a comprehensive campus tour, immersing themselves in interactions with faculty members and students. This firsthand experience allowed them to absorb the vibrant academic community and witness the innovative learning environment that defines our institution.

As we eagerly anticipate the feedback and insights from Prof. Ashutosh Ghosh, Prof. Chandra Gupta, and Prof. Pushpa Ranade, our commitment to transparency, collaboration, and continuous improvement remains steadfast. Stay tuned for forthcoming updates on this momentous visit in upcoming editions of our college newsletter, where we will continue to unravel the unfolding narrative of this significant event.

NAAC Peer Team Interact with Alumni & Students

During the NAAC Peer Team's visit, our alumni took center stage, contributing significantly to the accreditation process. Actively engaged, they shared success stories and offered constructive suggestions, providing a unique perspective for the evaluation team. Their insights, covering academic enhancements and community building, demonstrated a commitment to our institution's continuous improvement. Beyond suggestions, many alumni expressed tangible support through mentorship programs and collaborative initiatives.

This interaction highlighted the enduring bond within the [College Name] community, showcasing the instrumental role alumni play in shaping the institution's legacy. Their enthusiastic participation reflects a shared dedication to the ongoing success and growth of the College.

We extend our sincere appreciation to all alumni and personalities who contributed, exemplifying the vibrant and supportive network that defines our PRR&VS community.

Students Meet

Throughout the NAAC Peer Team visit, a pivotal component involved direct interactions with students. The team, keen on understanding the student experience, conducted engaging sessions where they posed inquiries covering diverse aspects of academic life. Actively seeking feedback, the team aimed to capture a nuanced understanding of student perspectives, contributing significantly to the overall assessment of the institution's educational practices and its commitment to fostering student well-being and development.

NAAC PEER TEAM @ CULTURAL MEET

During the NAAC peer team's visit to our college, a captivating fusion of tradition and creativity unfolded at our cultural meet. Our college students showcased exquisite classical dances and engaged in various cultural activities that authentically portrayed the native atmosphere. The NAAC team actively participated in these events, thoroughly enjoying the vibrant programs, and expressing heartfelt appreciation for the exceptional talent displayed by our students. They also commended the commendable efforts of the cultural committee in orchestrating such a culturally enriching experience. Beyond the stage performances, the NAAC team engaged in meaningful interactions with students, faculty, and cultural committee members, recognizing the inclusive nature of the cultural activities and the diverse heritage celebrated. They expressed interest in the collaborative efforts between the cultural committee and students, acknowledging the pivotal role such initiatives play in promoting a holistic learning environment. The cultural committee, in turn, provided the NAAC members with a concise yet comprehensive overview of the various cultural initiatives, leaving a lasting positive impression on the team. The cultural meet not only showcased artistic prowess but also underscored the college's commitment to fostering a strong sense of community and collaboration, contributing to a well-rounded educational experience.

NAAC PEER TEAM EXIT MEETING

During the exit meeting on the second day of the NAAC peer team visit, the three key members—the Chairman, Member Coordinator, and Member—each provided specific and essential suggestions for the educational institution's improvement. The Chairman likely offered overarching insights into strategic directions, governance, and institutional goals. The Member Coordinator, responsible for coordination, might have highlighted recommendations related to administrative efficiency and communication channels. The Member, likely focusing on academic aspects, may have suggested improvements in curriculum design, teaching methodologies, and research initiatives. These comprehensive suggestions from the diverse perspectives of the Chairmen, Member Coordinator, and Member serve as a comprehensive guide for the institution's continuous enhancement, aligning with NAAC accreditation standards.

DONATIONS FOR COLLEGE DEVELOPEMENT & NAAC PREPARATIONS

ALUMNI & PHILANTHROPISTS

The college has been fortunate to receive generous contributions from dedicated alumni and philanthropists, creating a conducive environment for development and National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) preparation. Alumni have played a pivotal role through financial support, mentorship programs, and networking opportunities. Their donations have enhanced infrastructure, scholarships, and research initiatives. Philanthropic donors have also significantly contributed to the college's growth, directing funds toward campus facilities, student scholarships, and research and innovation. These contributions are crucial not only for overall advancement but also for meeting NAAC standards, addressing infrastructure compliance, quality enhancement, and documentation processes. The collaborative efforts of alumni and philanthropists reflect a shared commitment to the college's success and academic excellence.

On August 29, The Dept. Of Telugu, PRR & VS Govt. College organized a special event, combining the celebration of Telugu Basha Dinostavam with the commemoration of Gidigu Ramamurthy Panthulu Jayanti. The event featured Dr. Karunasri, a distinguished Telugu lecturer from DKW College, Nellore, as the resource person. Attendees likely had the opportunity to gain insights into the Telugu language and culture through Dr. Karunasri's expertise.

Our college students enthusiastically participated in the MAHA JOB MELA at S.V. Arts College, Tirupati, organized by the Government of Andhra Pradesh, Commissionerate of Collegiate Education, and the Society of Jawahar Knowledge Centre. This event provided a valuable platform for our students to connect with potential employers from diverse industries. They actively engaged in submitting resumes, attending interviews, and networking with recruiters. The collaboration between the government and educational institutions showcased a commitment to supporting the youth in our region in their pursuit of meaningful employment. The participation of our students in this job fair reflects their eagerness to explore career opportunities and aligns with our college's emphasis on holistic development and career readiness.

Additionally, the occasion included honoring and celebrating the life and contributions of Gidigu Ramamurthy Panthulu. The event aimed to foster a sense of pride and appreciation for both Telugu language and the legacy of Gidigu Ramamurthy Panthulu.

TANGUTURI PRAKASHAM PANTHULU JAYANTI

The Dept. of Political Science commemorated Tanguturi Prakasham Pantulu Jayanti on August 23. Pantulu, born on August 23, 1872, was a distinguished freedom fighter and the inaugural Chief Minister of Andhra Pradesh. Renowned for his leadership and public service commitment, he played a crucial role in shaping the region's political landscape. His legacy is defined by dedication to social justice and substantial contributions to the state's development. Pantulu's enduring commitment to freedom and governance ideals remains an enduring source of inspiration across generations.
